Area Progress Is Highlight Of Best Stories For Year

In recounting the biggest stories of 1962 in this area, it is pleasing to discover that most of them were of a progressive nature, with only a mixture of tragedy and routine.

Probably the most outstanding story affecting this region was completion of the Truckee Tahoe Airport. This facility, two miles south of Truckee will be officially dedicated next spring.

Completion of the Prosser Dam which opened a new and beautiful recreational area, with its more commercial aspects, also was high among the stories of the past year.

Then there was the completion and dedication of the new Emigrant Trail Museum at Donner Memorial State Park, a $288,000 edifice adding greatly to the assets of the area.

Bids were opened for the last phase of the new freeway which will complete a four-lane route between San Francisco and Nevada.

The acquisition of the new Ponderosa Golf Course by Jackie Jensen and Alex Stewart marked another progress story for the region.

The general election with its local and far-flung interest was not among the lesser stories of the year. There were also several local elections of vital interest which provided more than passing attention.

The Tahoe Sierra Dog Derby should not be discounted among the major stories since it promises to be an annual major attraction.

Settlement, or at least a quieting, of the dispute over Squaw Valley has resulted in a major asset for the district and was covered in many stories but all together a vital issue in the region.

Probably the most tragic occurrence was the death of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stephens at Deer Park when they were crushed to death in their house trailer by a falling tree.

The fires, always a blot on community records, were kept at a minimum through the effective efforts of the forest service and fire department, although the loss of a number of homes and Eugene's Chalet at Tahoe provided sad news.

Then there were the passing of a number of old-time residents including Mrs. Annie Tonini, Joe Mattos, C. E. Smith and Bud Jones to add another sad note to the year's happenings.

All in all, however, it was a good year for the Truckee-North Tahoe area despite some unfortunate occurrences.

PLANNING GROUP IN COUNTY MAY CHANGE

The possibility that the Nevada County Planning Commission will be reorganized at the January 2 meeting loomed this week at the meeting of the supervisors with the resignation of County Assessor Charles R. Kitts as a member and the reocmmendation by the grand jury for a reorganization on a purely non-county-official basis.

Under the proposed new plan, the supervisors will determine if the commission will be formed of seven or five members, with a salary of $10 per meeting, but restricted to not more than three meetings a month.

Planning Director William Roberts said that either the seven or five-man commission would be satisfactory and advised the supervisors he would contact the commission on the suggestion.

KING COLES HOSTS AT DONNER MOTEL

Mr. and Mrs. King Cole of King Cole's Beach Motel at Donner Lake were hosts Saturday at a Christmas party celebrating the completion of their new chalet type motel.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and guests enjoyed a white elephant gift exchange, a buffet, dancing, carol singing and cards.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Verdi, Mr. and Mrs. Sky Miles, Mr. and Mrs. James Welsh and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Popovich.

ASSESSED VALUATION IN COUNTY IS HIGH

The assessed valuation of property subject to tax in Nevada County has been set by State Controller Alan Cranston at $46,301,850.

At the same time it was revealed the assessed valuation of all taxable property in California is $33,326,967,900, an increase of 5.6 per cent over last year.

Marauders Lead In Opening Plays Of City Hoop League

In games here last Thursday Buster Marier's Marauders took their second straight win with a 62-21 victory over the more inexperienced Osburn Garage team. With Russ Wickwire and Buster Marier each hitting for 16 points and Dave Dean, Truckee elementary basketball coach hitting for 14, the win was apparent from the start. Jim Moore led the Osburn scoring with six points, all gathered in the first half. This marks the second straight win for the league leaders.

The second game was an entirely different affair and the newly-named Tahoe City team barely eked out a victory over Tonini's in the last quarter as Dan Grove, who led all scorers for the evening with 26, went on a scoring spree.

Tonini's, with Bob Tonini and John Firpo leading the scoring, with 15 and 12 respectively, led at half-time by a score of 20 to 17. But with Rich Lobotz, Bill McClain and Dan Grove dominating the backboards, Tahoe City pulled away in the final stanza. McClain also ended up with 12 points.

The next games will be played Thursday, January 3, when Osburn's Garage meets Tonini's at 7 p. m. and U-Save plays the Marauders at 8:15.

On Tuesday, January 8, U-Save meets Osburn's Garage and the Marauders will meet the Tahoe City five.

Permits Required On Trailer Homes

Chief Building Inspector H. J. Crawford today announced that permits are required for use of mobilehomes and trailer coaches for human habitation outside mobilehome parks in the unincorporated area of Nevada County.

Mobilehome permits will be issued by the building inspector, pursuant to the California Health and Safety Code. This section of the code makes it unlawful for any person to use a mobilehome for more than 30 days during any three months period of time without a permit from the building inspector.

In order to obtain a permit, it is necessary that the following information be presented to the building inspector:

1. A legal description of the property on which the mobilehome is located.

2. Written permission of the owner or persons legally in charge of the land, giving permission for the use of the land for occupancy of the mobilehome and stating that no rent of any kind is charged for the mobilehome or the space it occupies.

3. Evidence of a current license from the department of motor vehicles for the mobilehome.

4. Evidence of compliance with all valid local planning, health and safety requirements.

A chimney fire which caused no damage and was quickly extinguished Saturday threatened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tischer. The alarm brought out the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department to the home in Donner Trail Estates.

CAR AFIRE

The Truckee Volunteer Fire Department was called to Smart's yesterday afternoon when a car parked there caught fire, but was extinguished before the truck, making a usual gas run, arrived. Little damage was caused.

Supervisors Will Decide Action On Building In Meet

The Nevada County Board of Supervisors today expects to take definite action of the long delayed public building program by adopting the lease-purchase plan.

The board delayed action at last week's meeting, deciding to call a special meeting today for the purpost.

The project would involve $1,065,871 for a new county building in Truckee, land for which has been obtained near the Tahoe Forest Hospital and an addition to the county court house in Nevada City.

Financing plans for the project were outlined at last week's meeting but additional study was ordered.

Also at last week's meeting, the board took no action on a proposal by Supervisor W. W. Bishop for the establishment of a county-wide fish and game committee similar to those setup in Butte and Placer Counties.

Registration Open January 2 On Cars At Local Office

Renewal statements for 1963 are in the mail to California's seven million registered automobile owners, Tom Bright, director of motor vehicles, announced today.

Statements show the amount of fees due for 1963 registration, and when stamped paid, will become the registration certificate for the coming year. Renewal fees for automobiles and motorcycles are due on Wednesday, January 2, 1963, and can be paid without penalty up to and including Monday, February 4. Renewal on commercial vehicles, trucks and trailers started December 3.

The Truckee office of the department of motor vehicles will be open for renewals and other registration matters as usual, Richard Paddock, office manager, announced.

New license plates will be issued in 1963 for the first time since 1956. The new plates are heavier metal than the old ones and will be the same colors, only reversed, with black background and chrome yellow letters and numbers.

Bright issued these specific instructions to motorists:

1. Follow instructions on the 1963 renewal statements.

2. Renew early to avoid the long lines that always develop the last few days.

3. All renewal statements should be received by January 15. If, because of change of address or any other reason, the renewal statements has not arrived by January 15, bring the 1962 registration to any DMV office for processing and issue of new plates.

FOG IN BAY AREA IS CAUSE OF DELAYS

Mrs. Roxie Archie experienced a rather unnerving trip to San Francisco last week where she had a medical appointment. She left Reno by plane, expecting to be in San Francisco early Wednesday. The bay area was blanketed with a thick fog and the plane, unable to land, set out for Stockton.

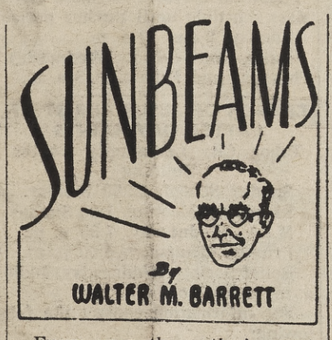
At Stockton the field was fogged in and finally a landing was made at Modesto, the balance of the trip to San Francisco being made by bus.

The return trip was as bad. A long wait at the airport and finally a rented car solved the problem for the homeward journey.

CHURCH GROUP AT FELLOWSHIP AFFAIR

The youth group of the Sierra Bible Chapel enjoyed fellowship and dinner with the young people of the Calvary Baptist Church in Reno Saturday the 21st. The teenagers had fun going from house to house to partake of each course offered at the dinner.

SUNBEAMS



By WALTER M. BARRETT

Every year the nation's sports writers choose an All-America football team — eleven men who are the very best at their positions in this sport.

Every day California drivers contribute 11 human beings to a different sort of team—an aggregation compounded of tragedy; an unpopular group, yet formed, inexorably, each day.

There is no voting to get on this squad. Most people put themselves there—through a traffic violation, inattention, a careless or discourteous act.

It is truly an all-California group — members come from throughout the state. It is not particularly exclusive, however. By tomorrow another unit will be formed, and today's forgotten.

Of course you have guessed the first requisite. Members must be dead—killed in a traffic accident.

Even while you read this, another unit is assembling, ready to take its place beside the 350-odd teams already formed this year. And the approaching holiday season, if history is any guide, not only will supply its daily quota of 11-member squads. There will be plenty of reserves added to the roster.

It's not hard to make this team. Many drivers found it took only a moment's carelessness, a little too much speed, a pass on a blind curve, a couple of drinks.

It's possible to stay off, too. It takes 100 per cent concentration on the job of driving, strict compliance with law, firm control of the emotions and command of all physical faculties. Certainly it is more difficult. But it's worth it.

You won't be among tomorrow's eleven. — Bradford M. Crittenden, Commissioner, California Highway Patrol.

Patrol Promises Law Enforcement

The California Highway Patrol will concentrate on enforcement against moving violations, particularly excessive speed and drinking drivers during the New Year's holiday period, Lieutenant Oliver P. Ledford, in charge of the local squad announced.

The New Year's weekend, Ledford announced, runs for a period of 102 hours from 6 p. m., December 28 to midnight Tuesday, January 1.

"Patrol efforts will be of little consequence, however, if the drivers fail to heed common sense requirements of holiday motoring," Ledford declared. "Alertness, courtesy, compliance with traffic laws — these are your insurance against accidents," he added.

Last New Year's, 45 were killed in the state on highways during a 78-hour period. The patrol made 211 arrests for drunk driving during that period and 11,042 arrests for other moving violations.

All available officers wil be on duty, Ledford declared in urging utmost care in driving.

The newlyweds are ardent ski enthusiasts and plan to make their permanent home here. Mrs. Miller had been employed with an insurance agency in Sacramento before coming to her local position.

Friday at 5:15 p. m. Frank F. Stella, 49, Auburn, was injured when his pickup truck left a curve near Deer Park on State Route 89 and was wrecked. He was cited for speed and not having the vehicle under control.

The patrol issued 33 citations for moving violations during the hospital period.

State Calling For Bid On $5,450,000 Summit Pave Job

The state department of public works will open bids in Sacramento at 2 p.m. February 6 for paving 10½ miles of freeway over Donner Summit. The cost of the project is estimated at $5,455,000.

The portion to be paved is now under construction and extends from .4 of a mile west of Soda Springs to the Donner State Park overcrossing just east of Donner Lake.

Another 2½ miles of the existing freeway, already completed, will be signed under the contract.

The graded roadbeds of the freeway, together with a frontage road and ramps, are to be paved with Portland cement concrete on cement treated base over aggregate subbase and asphalt concrete on cement treated base or aggregate base over aggregate subbase.

Work on the west slope of the new 7,239-foot summit has been completed. The eastern slope, on which excavation has been suspended for the winter, is about 95 per cent complete and is expected to be finished sometime next summer. However, this will not interfere with the start of work on the base and surfacing operation.

It is anticipated this third contract will commence by the first of May. Weather will be the determining factor. Also depending mainly on the weather in the high Sierra, traffic is expected to be rolling over the four-lane freeway by the end of 1964.

Details of the project are contained in a legal notice elsewhere in the Sierra Sun today.

The victory evened the Wolves' season record at 2-2 and left the Vikings 0-3.

History of Truckee River Recited In Magazine Article

Several little known facts about "The Truckee River," says that at a two-page article by Lee Elam and Leo Rosenhouse in the recent issue of National Motorist, published by the National Automobile Club.

The illustrated story entitled "The Truckee iver," says that at one time the river was almost the cause of a civil war between Californians and Nevadans and often the cause of devastating floods. It is called one of the most scenic rivers.

It is one of few American rivers that begin in a lake and end in a lake.

The story traces the history of the river from the time it was encountered by the Donner Party to the present when it offers beauty from the highway which it parallels. The first white man to see the Truckee was believed to have been Caleb Greenwood. During 1822, he crossed the mountains into California near the river and became a Sierra guide and directed pioneers toward the Pacific Coast.

He made no objection when in 1844, Mathew Harbin, leader of a wagon train to Sacramento from the midwest, hired a congenial Paiute Indian as an assistant guide. By the time the train reached the headwaters of the Truckee river, Harbin was so pleased with the Paiute he decided to name the stream after him.

Less than a century ago, this vital river almost induced the civil war. A land developer felt that the river could serve San Francisco as well as Reno and wanted to divert part of the stream through a vast tunnel, which was to feed into six-foot diameter conduits that would stretch to the Golden Gate. San Franciscoans were told they could have as much as 200 million gallons of pure mountain water a day. In 1870, San Francisco considered the proposition seriously and this caused Nevadans to raise a cry for volunteer soldiers to go to war against anyone who would divert the Truckee.

The problem was solved, the story says, when it was found the project would be too costly.

The story concludes: It is a rich trout stream and a recreational river endowed with many pleasant small beaches. One can amble along its rocky banks where prospectors formerly panned and riffled water for gold. It is a magnificent, verdant river, one that is most representative of all that a motorist seeks in the way of a picturesque mountain stream.

Meets at Wyethia Clubhouse, Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Morning Services, 11 a. m.

How mankind is redeemed through a scientifically correct understanding of God will be explained at Christian Science church services Sunday.

Opening the Bible readings will be this verse from Isaiah: "the people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." The subject of the lesson-sermon is "Christian Science."

A citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 466): "the science of Christianity comes with fan in hand to separate the chaff from the wheat. Science will declare God aright, and Christianity will demonstrate this declaration and its divine principle, making mankind better physically, morally and spiritually."

SOME APPOINTEES OF BROWN MAY RESIGN

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The question of who walks the plank and who is signed on for another four-year cruise with the administration of Governor Edmund G. Brown still remains a big one in Sacramento and Brown hasn't done much to answer it ,except to say there will be some changes made.

The governor did announce the appointment of 23-year-old Robert Chick, of Los Angeles, as his travel secretary. Chick replaces Richard A. Kline, who has handled travel duties for the past year. Kline is to be assigned to new duties, as yet not announced.

And Brown announced he has appointed Marvin E. Cordoza, San Francisco banking official, as a director of the California state fair. Cordoza, 48, succeeds the late Earl E. Kelly, of Sacramento, on the board.

Otherwise, Brown said he still is thinking. In answer to a question, he said he would not fire W. A. Savage, state real estate commissioner, but did not say whether he would reappoint Savage when his term expires in 1963.

"I want to make some changes in some of these departments and it has no reference, in some cases, whether they have been doing a good job or a bad job," Brown said. "I just feel that there should be an effusion of new blood at this stage of the government in California."

MALE ADVANTAGE AT SIERRA IS LESSENING

The 2-1 ratio by which males outnumber females at Sierra College is lessening. According to figures released by Registrar Floyd Brown, the October enrollment figures showed that there were 902 males to 547 females among the 1,449 students. Some 361 of the 1,449 enrolled were evening students.

Last year the ladies outnumbered the men by 2-1.

Brown also reported that the dropout rate at this time of the year averages one student a day, at Sierra. These figures compare favorably with the dropout rate in other colleges, he noted.

Registration for spring semester will be held during the last week of January.

The Tehachapi pumping plant of the California aqueduct system will lift water 1,949 feet in one continuous lift from the floor of the San Joaquin valley.

In 1789, U. S. senators and representatives received $6 per day as compensation for their services; today they receive $22,500 a year.

Our thanks to the many friends for cards and invitations for the Christmas holidays. We hope that everyone had a real old fashioned Christmas as we did and wish to extend our best wishes for the New Year.

Speaking of friends—had a nice note from Vera Mosier from Honolulu where she spends her winters. Summers are spent at Crystal Bay with son and wife, Rod and Eleanor Campbell. Our mutual friends, Lt. and Mrs. Robert Congdon and sons, who previously were Hawaii residents, are now in Newport, R.I.

Vera is fine and enjoying herself, as usual.

* * *

Card came from Connie Long from Oakland. Connie was with Riviera Resort Clothes Shops last summer. Her many friends will be happy to learn that she is leaving for Washington, D. C., the middle of January, thence to Heidelberg, Germany, for a week's vacation. Then, perhaps, Italy. Good luck, Connie.

YOUNG OPERATORS LEAD BOAT MISHAPS

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The state division of small craft harbors has blown up the theory that youthful boat operators do not cause many accidents in California.

The division made a report on a six months' survey of boating accidents. But the accident survey also was combined with a special poll to determine the age spread of the principal operators of the boats.

As a result, Lachlan M. Richards, chief of the division, said "youthful boat operators tend to become involved in boating accidents more than twice as often as adult operators."

This is in sharp contrast to the statistics which the division has been releasing since reporting of all boat accidents was made compulsory in April of 1960. These reports, issued every few months, showed the bulk of operators involved in accidents were over 21 and had hundreds of hours of experience in operation of boats.

DEFENSE KITS ARE ASSIGNED TO COUNTY

The County of Nevada has been assigned a total of 22 new radiological defense kits, delivered November 20 to the Nevada County Disaster Office, it was announced by Charles A. Weeks, assistant director.

The kits, obtained through the radiological defense division of the California disaster office, will be placed at emergency fallout monitoring stations that are part of the local network to detect and report fallout radiation that would follow a nuclear attack.

"In order to qualify for these instruments, which are provided by the federal government at no cost to the county, we have trained two civil defense monitors to operate and maintain each monitoring station," Weeks said.

Each kit contains three portable rate meters, two pocket dosimeters and a dosimeter charger.

Fixed monitoring stations in Truckee are located at Tahoe Forest Hospital, Nevada County sheriff's office, Truckee Public Utility District building, and Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department, Donner Lake.

PURPOSE OF SURVEY IS REVEALED WITH COMMITTEES NAMED

James R. Harding, vice president, branch manager of Mid-Valley Savings and Loan Association in Grass Valley, will serve as chairman of the county-wide economic resources study committee, it was announced by a six-man nominating committee.

Harding, on accepting the post, reiterated the importance of the study to provide guidance to future development rather than following an uncharted course. He pointed out that his company had spent several thousand dollars in special surveys of the area to prove the need for another lending agency in the county. The economic resources inventory will supply much of the information needed to encourage new businesses and thereby create jobs in the county, raising the per capita income of its residents and broadening the tax base.

In a progress report to the board of supervisors, Harding said he is appointing a directing committee to provide guidance and to keep the study moving rapidly. Francis Longo, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District, has been appointed to represent the Truckee area on the directing committee.

Each of the 25 members of the supervisor appointed organizing committee has been asked by Harding to submit names of persons to serve on the working groups who will gather information on ten major topics as follows:

1. History, location and climate.
2. Population, employment and income.
3. Agriculture.
4. Natural resources.
5. Industry, commerce and services.
6. Topography, land use and zoning.
7. Fuel, power, water and sewage.
8. Transportation and related facilities.
9. Local government.
10. Community facilities and services.

Things always happen in threes, so 'tis said. If so, Moseleys—Hank and Madeline—should start to relax. Three years ago, a tree fell on the neighboring house and caused damage to the Moseleys' property. The following year a car ran into their main building, causing considerable damage to the gift shop. Sunday, their rental house on the lakefront caught fire and although prompt action of the fire department saved it from complete destruction, Hank will have a major task to repair it. Faulty wiring is thought to have caused the fire.

BOAT REGISTRATION TO START JANUARY 1

Boat registration renewals will be in the mail to the more than 300,000 California boat owners during the next week.

The re-registration is the first required of boat owners since California's boat registration law became effective in 1960. The fee will be $3 for three years beginning January 1, 1963.

Lachlan M. Richards, chief of the division of small craft harbors, said the boat owner can renew his registration by mailing the renewal fee and the IBM card he will receive this month to the division of small craft harbors in Sacramento, or he may go to one of the division's authorized undocumented vessel registration agents and present the card and fee.

NEW ROUTING FOR TRAFFIC ON SUMMIT

Eastbound and westbound traffic on a 2½-mile stretch of U. S. 40 in Placer County — between Emigrant Gap and Yuba Gap—has been routed onto the future two westbound lanes of the four-lane freeway under construction there.

Reduced speed and other advisory signs have been posted, and state highway officials at the Marysville district office urged that motorists use caution in the area of transition from the existing highway to the new pavement.

A spokesman emphasized that eastbound vehicles should be especially alert to the change from the four-lane freeway to the two-lane conventional highway beginning at Emigrant Gap.

The two-way traffic will continue to use the new section of highway during the winter as well as next year while eastbound lanes are under construction.

Work on the total 5½-mile Interstate freeway between Emigrant Gap and the junction of State Sign Route 20 has been suspended for the winter and will be resumed with the advent of favorable weather next spring.

The $8 million project is about 65 per cent complete and is expected to be finished by next fall.

NEW TECHNIQUES IN SKIING AT NORDEN

NORDEN—With the opening of the Sugar Bowl ski school, Director Junior Bounous and his staff of several instructors began teaching the newly adopted American technique.

Formulated by the Professional Ski Instructors of America, the so-called American technique is an amalgamation of all ski systems now practiced in the United States and Europe.

Other members of the Sugar Bowl staff are Bill Briggs, mountain guide from Grand Tetons in Wyoming; Royal Robbins, local rock climber and ski mountaineer; Mike Wiegele, certified Canadian; Phil Jones, former Denver University skier; Alex Brogle of Alaska, assistant director; Toni Marth of Austria, starting his second year as junior racing coach, and Leo Scheiblehner, certified racing coach from Austria.

RENO MAN EXPIRES WHEN HIT BY PICKUP

In an unusual and unavoidable accident at Verdi Christmas Eve, Fred DeSomma, 42, Reno bar operator, suffered fatal injuries when he was apparently struck by a car driven by Wayne Ramey, 33, operator of the Sierra Appliance in Truckee.

DeSomma, westbound apparently made a left turn on the highway and his auto was struck by a car driven by Willie Williams of Los Angeles. It appeared that DeSomma got out of his car to flag down oncoming traffic when he was struck by the Ramey pickup, returning from a service call.

Ramey said he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and did not see the man on the highway.

DEFENSE PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED IN MEET

TAHOE CITY — Mrs. Florence Brown last week attended a meeting on civil defense in Auburn where Dean Pratt, Placer County director and Dr. C. Coggins of the California Disaster Office spoke on medi self-help plan.

This is a program where at least one member of each family is trained in the care of the sick or injured when it may be impossible to secure the services of a doctor. The course teaches what to do in emergencies and in the care of the ill.

The federal government is sponsoring the course with pilot projects in seven California areas with wide interest to make Placer County the eighth area.

More information on the program will be offered after the first of the year, Mrs. Brown explained. Students eligible for the first class will be nurses, technicians, Red Cross instructors and teachers and persons having training in similar fields.

Anyone wishing to register for classes may contact Mrs. Brown at JU 3-3995.

ALL ALIENS MUST BE REGISTERED IN JAN.

SAN FRANCISCO— District Director Ralph H. Holton of the Iimmigration and Naturalization Service stated that aliens in the United States will be required to report their addresses to the Attorney General during January.

All aliens ,with few exceptions, who are in the United States on January 1 each year must report their addresses by the end of that month. Only the following classes of aliens are excused from this requirement: (1) accredited diplomats; (2) persons accredited to certain international organizations and (3) those admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers.

Forms with which to make the report can be obtained from any post office or immigration and naturalization service office during the month of January.

Holton said that the law provides severe penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirement.

CYNTHIA SCOTCHLER, WEDS LAKE YOUTH

SQUAW VALLEY—The former Cynthia Sue Scotchler and Steven Dennis Thompkins recited marriage vows in the United Church of Christ in Squaw Valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Scotchler of Chico and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Thompkins of Kings Beach.

The newlyweds will reside at Tahoe's west shore.

The bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over satin had a bouffant, street length skirt and long sleeves.

Her white net veil was draped from a lace head-piece. She carried white carnations and orchids.

Aina Treiguts of Palo Alto served as the maid of honor.

She wore a street length red brocade sheath with long sleeves and carried a white muff accented with red carnations and holly.

Jerry Cinani of Reno stood as best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Joel, and Robert Chacon.

A reception was given in the church social hall.

SIERRA PACIFIC MAY BUILD STEAM PLANT

Beowawe, Nevada, just 36 road-miles from Battle Mountain, Nevada, may be the site of a power plant built by Sierra Pacific Power Company.

The company announced today that it has retained an engineering firm to check the feasibility of installing a plant which would generate from 2,000 to 5,000 kilowatts of electricity, using the natural steam that now roars from wells deep in the earth.

Engineers at Sierra Pacific who have visited the steam wells say the possibility of putting the steam to use "looks good."

They said a nearby power plant would be a definite asset to the Battle Mountain area. One advantage would be a nearby source of power for Battle Mountain. Another would be possible development of mining and ranches in the area that could benefit by electric power.

Electricity from natural steam is now produced at the Geysers in Sonoma County, California, in New Zealand, and in Italy. In Italy natural steam has been producing electric power for approximately 50 years.

For many years the area where the steam wells were drilled was well known to Battle Mountain residents as a curiosity. Many visited the valley to see the bubbling hot water pools there.

Now the steam that comes from deep in the earth is brought to the surface and escapes from pipes with a deafening roar. It is almost impossible to talk near them. Water at the bottom of the wells is estimated to have a temperature more than 150 degrees F. above the 212 F. degree boiling point of water.

LEN THISBY FAMILY NOW IN PAKISTAN

Christmas greeting came from the Len Thisby family at Pakistan to the Sierra Sun, telling of her arrival, with the children on December 14.

Thisby met his family at Rawaplana and the newcomers saw a great deal of the country where the natives live in 19th century atmosphere. The Thisbys who are among the 1,100 Americans working on the government project have an air conditioned house, newly built and snow is on the mountains.

Mrs. Thisby commented that the Pakistanians are very bright people and La Von is looking forward to a pair of native, hand made shoes being designed by drawing an outline of her feet.

NO SNOW, BUT COLD FOR CHRISTMAS HERE

A storm predicted for last week failed to materialize and the region experienced a "dark" Christmas, and from all appearances will not have snow for the New Year, an unusual occurence for this region.

The temperature dropped sharply during the holiday, however, and a nippy zero was recorded Christmas.

FORESTER EXPIRES

Announcement of the death in Berkeley of Marc Edmonds, former Tahoe National Forest employe, was received here this week. Edmonds worked for many years in the forest service headquarters as a timber sales representative until 1940 when he was transferred to San Francisco. He retired three years ago.
